

125th AIRCRAFT CONTROL AND WARNING SQUADRON

LINEAGE

STATIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

COMMANDERS

HONORS

Service Streamers

Campaign Streamers

Armed Forces Expeditionary Streamers

Decorations

EMBLEM

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

MOTTO

NICKNAME

OPERATIONS

Federalized: 16 November 1951 at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont

Released from active duty: 1 November, 1953 and returned to control of Arkansas

125th ACW Squadron: federalized in the ANG on 16 Nov 51 at Ft. Ethan Allen, VT; assigned to the 32nd Air Division; transferred to 4711th Defense Wing on 16 Feb 53; released from 24 months active duty and returned to control of State of Missouri on 1 Nov 53.

1951 saw another unit pass through the gates of Jefferson Barracks.

In January, 1951, the 125th Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron was formed and assigned to Jefferson Barracks. The unit spent their only summer field training at Camp Williams, Wis., in July of that same year.

The unit was activated for Korea on November 1, 1951 and sent to Ft. Ethan Allen, Vermont. The 125th was never assigned to an active duty mission, but remained at Ft. Ethan Allen. It was reduced to a holding force in August of 1952 and deactivated in August of 1953.

Air Force Order of Battle

Created: 12 Oct 2010

Updated:

Sources