OPERATIONS

In July 1964 the Florida air National Guard was reorganized under the double duty concept of operation. This gave the group commander two deputy commanders who were directly responsible to him. The new posts included deputy commander for operations and deputy commander for material. At the same time the 125 Air Base Squadron (Air Defense) was redesignated 125 Combat Support Squadron (Air Defense).

In 1978 security manning was withdrawn from the 125 Combat Support Squadron concurrent with the organization of the 125 Security Police Flight.
