EMBLEM

On a disc Silver Gray, two hands Proper caressing a terrestrial globe Azure, land masses Vert, environed by a stylized flight symbol ascending bendwise sinister Sable, emitting a stylized two piece contrail Or, all within a narrow border Black. Attached above the disc, a Silver Gray scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "SERVICE SUPPORT SUCCESS" in Black letters. Attached below the disc, a Silver Gray scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "128TH MISSION SUPPORT FLIGHT" in Black letters.

Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The hands holding the globe represent the unit's worldwide mission. The stylized aero flight symbol represents the ability to perform the mission anytime and anywhere.
