EMBLEM

On a disc Celeste, parted per fess by a mountain range Azure, snow capped Argent, surmounting a sun in splendor Or, above in sinister chief four stylized aircraft lozenged fesswise, three contrailing and terminating to sinister, and in dexter a minuteman contourné Sable, coupé at the legs, garnished of the third, all within a narrow border of the second. Attached above the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "BELLATORUM SUSTINEMUS" in Blue letters. Attached below the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "140TH OSS" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The minuteman represents service of our Air National Guard heritage and is a reminder of the unit's dedication to freedom and liberty. The sun capped snow covered mountains symbolize the austere environment in which the Squadron serves. The diamond formation signifies the mission support duties and functions for which the unit fights.
