

158th AIRCRAFT CONTROL AND WARNING GROUP

158th AIRCRAFT CONTROL AND WARNING GROUP

LINEAGE

STATIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

COMMANDERS

HONORS

Service Streamers

Campaign Streamers

Armed Forces Expeditionary Streamers

Decorations

EMBLEM

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

MOTTO

NICKNAME

OPERATIONS

158th Aircraft Control & Warning Group

Texas ANG

Activated: 1 April 1943 as 583rd Signal Air Warning Battalion

Deployed: August 1943 SW Pacific

Awards: Battle Honors: New Guinea Campaign, Southern Philippines Campaign, Bismarck Archipelago Campaign and Luzon Campaign

Relocated: 23 November 1945, United States

Redesignated: 24 May 1946 from 583d SAW Bn

Allotted: 24 May 1946 to National Guard

Federal Recognition: 23 May 1948

Federalized: 20 October 1951 at
Ellington AFB, Texas
Relocated: La Porte, Texas
Commander: 1951, Col. Kermit K. Black
Relocated: Kirkland AFB, New Mexico
Inactivated: 6 February 1952

LINEAGE

STATIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

COMMANDERS

HONORS

Service Streamers

Campaign Streamers

Armed Forces Expeditionary Streamers

Decorations

EMBLEM

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

MOTTO

NICKNAME

OPERATIONS

158th Aircraft Control and Warning Group: Federalized ANG on 20 October 1951 and assigned to 34th Air Division, moved to Kirtland AFB, NM; inactivated on 6 February 1952.

Sources