A ribbon-cutting was held Aug. 16 to open the Air National Guard's newest and largest intelligence center at McConnell AFB, Kan. The $7.4 million center is home to the ANG's 161st Intelligence Operations Group. The unit is already providing intelligence support for deployed forces, but with the new 22,000 square-foot facility up and running, the unit's imagery processing and battlefield support capabilities are multiplied. 2006
