

222nd COMMAND AND CONTROL SQUADRON

LINEAGE

STATIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

COMMANDERS

HONORS

Service Streamers

Campaign Streamers

Armed Forces Expeditionary Streamers

Decorations

EMBLEM

On a disc Sable, a statue of a Minuteman facing dexter encircled by an orbit Argent charged in sinister base with a satellite Tenné, in sinister chief and dexter base a polestar Azure, all within a narrow border Yellow. Attached above the disc, a Black scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "FIDELIS CUSTODIS" in Yellow letters. Attached below the disc, a Black scroll edged with a narrow Yellow border and inscribed "222D CACS" in Yellow letters. (Approved 13 March 2009)

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The stars symbolize the unit's ties to the Air Force Space Command. The orbiting satellite represents the Squadron's connection to space and the National Reconnaissance

Office. The satellite represents local heritage and culture. The profile of the Minuteman symbolizes the connection to the Air National Guard and the unit's rapid response capability. The Latin motto, "FIDELIS CUSTODIS," translates to "Faithful Guardians" in English and underscores the unit's watch over space.

Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The stars symbolize the unit ties to the Air Force Space Command. The orbiting satellite represents the unit's connection to space and the National Reconnaissance Office. The satellite represents local heritage and culture. The profile of the Minuteman symbolizes the connection to the Air National Guard and the unit's rapid response capability.

MOTTO

NICKNAME

OPERATIONS

222 CACS provides the National Reconnaissance Office's (NRO) National Reconnaissance Operations Center (NROC) with augmentees to assist NRO and U.S. Air Force Space Command during times of need. 222 CACS provides support with ongoing space operations crucial to our national security. The NRO is a joint organization engaged in the research and development, acquisition, launch and operation of overhead reconnaissance systems necessary to meet the needs of the intelligence community and Department of Defense.

Air Force Order of Battle
Created: 12 Apr 2012
Updated:

Sources