EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, a representation of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis, Missouri, argent, garnished Argent, suspended within the arch a web of the like displaying a spider bendwise in sinister base Gules membered Sable and radiating from its head three lightning bolts toward the center Or, all within a diminished border Black. Attached below the disc, a Yellow scroll edged with a narrow Black border and inscribed "239 COMBAT COMMUNICATIONS SQ" in Black letters.

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The Gateway Arch in St. Louis, Missouri, represents the location of the unit. The web is symbolic of the "communications net" throughout the world. The spider and its lightning bolts allude to the unit's ability to quickly find and engage targets.
