

240th AIR SERVICE GROUP

LINEAGE

240th Air Base Group organized, 27 Jun 1946

STATIONS

ASSIGNMENTS

COMMANDERS

LTC Howard Gamble

HONORS

Service Streamers

Campaign Streamers

Armed Forces Expeditionary Streamers

Decorations

EMBLEM

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

MOTTO

NICKNAME

OPERATIONS

One of the Colorado Air Guard's most important units was the 240th Air Service Group. Commanded by Col Howard Gamble, this unit was responsible for aircraft maintenance and repair. Other units under wing headquarters at the end of the decade were the communication squadron, an engineer company to construct temporary airfields, a signal company to string wire and operate the ground telephone system, and the band.

Air Force Order of Battle

Created: 12 Oct 2010

Updated:

Sources