EMBLEM

The Air Force blue globe represents the global scope of communications. Red and white lightning symbolizes the speed of modern day communications. The red and white bridge symbolizes the communications gap that the squadron bridges. The eye is symbolic of the reconnaissance mission supported by the 2143rd Communications Squadron. The aircraft symbolizes the air traffic control portion of the mission. The yellow star is symbolic of our 24-hour mission. (Approved, 20 Sep 2011)
