OPERATIONS

The 9th Security Forces Squadron is charged with a mission to both provide trained combat support forces to theatre commanders worldwide as well as defend the 23,000 acres of Beale AFB. Security responsibilities range from protecting the fleet of unique reconnaissance aircraft to controlling access to a Protection Level I radar resource. Additionally, the squadron provides professional law enforcement services to base and local residents. Military working dog teams certified to detect illicit drugs and explosives round out capabilities.
