

AIR NATIONAL GUARD READINESS CENTER

LINEAGE

Established as the Air National Guard Support Center, and activated as a direct reporting unit, on June 1, 1979

Effective February 5, 1991, status changed from a direct reporting unit to a field operating agency

Redesignated Air National Guard Readiness Center on June 1, 1992

STATIONS

Andrews AFB, MD,

COMMANDERS

BG David A. Brubaker, #2004

Col Michael E. Hillestad, #2005

HONORS

Service Streamers

Campaign Streamers

Armed Forces Expeditionary Streamers

Decorations

EMBLEM

EMBLEM SIGNIFICANCE

MOTTO

NICKNAME

OPERATIONS

Air National Guard Support Center

Established as Air National Guard Support Center on 10 May 1979. Activated as a direct reporting unit on 1 June 1979.

Air National Guard Support Center, Established and activated 1 Jun 1979
Redesignated Air National Guard Readiness Center, 1 Jun 1992

Andrews AFB, MD, 1 Jun 1979

BG Craig R. McKinley, #1999
Col Naomi D. Manadier, #2002
BG David A. Brubaker, #2004
Col Michael E. Hillestad, #2006
Col Joseph L. Lengyel, #2008
Col Michael J. McDonald, #2010

Provide combat capability to the warfighter and security, to the homeland

STRUCTURE

201st Mission Support Squadron
13 directorates

Established as the Air National Guard Support Center, and activated as a direct reporting unit, on June 1, 1979. Effective February 5, 1991, status changed from a direct reporting unit to a field operating agency.

Air Force Order of Battle
Created: 19 Sep 2010
Updated:

Sources
AFHRA

AIR NATIONAL GUARD READINESS CENTER

Air National Guard Support Center
Established as Air National Guard Support Center on 10 May 1979. Activated as a direct reporting unit on 1 June 1979.

Air National Guard Support Center, Established and activated 1 Jun 1979
Redesignated Air National Guard Readiness Center, 1 Jun 1992

Andrews AFB, MD, 1 Jun 1979

BG Craig R. McKinley, #1999
Col Naomi D. Manadier, #2002
BG David A. Brubaker, #2004
Col Michael E. Hillestad, #2006
Col Joseph L. Lengyel, #2008
Col Michael J. McDonald, #2010

Provide combat capability to the warfighter and security, to the homeland

STRUCTURE

201st Mission Support Squadron
13 directorates

Established as the Air National Guard Support Center, and activated as a direct reporting unit, on June 1, 1979. Effective February 5, 1991, status changed from a direct reporting unit to a field operating agency.