EMBLEM

4 Aviation Field Depot Squadron approved, 11 Aug 1954

The 4 Munitions Maintenance Squadron emblem is symbolic of the unit. The Air Force colors, ultramarine blue and golden yellow, as well as the national colors are used in the design. The color blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations, and the yellow to the sun and the excellence of personnel in assigned tasks. The focal point of the design, the eagle, symbolizes the swiftness and alertness with which the unit accomplishes the mission. The olive branch in the eagle's talons represents the hope for and maintenance of peace throughout the world--conversely, the sword represents the combat readiness of the unit to protect the United States whenever required. The red embattlement symbolizes defense posture against the enemies. The three bands of blue, green and golden yellow represent the three fighter squadrons supported by the unit as its primary mission.
