EMBLEM

On a disc Azure, a sun in dexter chief radiating throughout Or, surmounted by a snow covered mountain range Argent, shadowed Silver Gray, issuant from base a meadow Vert; emitting from sinister base overall a wolf's head couped and howling of the third and of the fourth, detailed Gris, all within a narrow bordure Blue. Attached above the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "DUM VITA EST SPES EST" in Blue letters. Attached below the disc, a White scroll edged with a narrow Blue border and inscribed "75TH MEDICAL OPERATIONS SQ" in Blue letters. SIGNIFICANCE: Ultramarine blue and Air Force yellow are the Air Force colors. Blue alludes to the sky, the primary theater of Air Force operations. Yellow refers to the sun and the excellence required of Air Force personnel. The wolf symbolizes effective patient care. Wolves travel in packs to be effective, just as the Squadron utilizes several diverse specialties in their efforts to deliver effective patient care. The mountains represent the ever changing challenges the unit has to overcome to take care of their own. The sun alludes to healing light and also refers to the primary mission of the unit to prevent diseases and heal the sick and injured. (Approved, 13 Sep 2010)
